INTRASTATE AND INTERSTATE CLEARANCE ORDER

The employer agrees to provide to workers referred through the clearance system the number of hours of work per week cited in Item 11 of the clearance order for the week beginning with the anticipated date of need, unless the employer has amended the date of need at least 10 working days prior to the original date of need by so notifying the Order-Holding Office (OHO). If the employer fails to notify the OHO at least 10 working days prior to the original date of need, the employer shall pay eligible workers referred through the intrastate/interstate clearance system the specified hourly rate or pay, or in the absence of a specified hourly rate or pay, the higher of the Federal or State minimum wage rate for the first week starting with the original anticipated date of need. The employer may require workers to perform alternative work if the guarantee is invoked and if such alternative work is stated on the job order.

The employer agrees that no extension of employment beyond the period of employment shown on the job order will relieve the employer from paying the wages already earned, or specified in the job order as a term of employment, providing transportation or paying transportation expenses to the worker's home.

The employer assures that all working conditions comply with applicable Federal and State minimum wage, child labor, social security, health and safety, farm labor contractor registration and other employment-related laws.

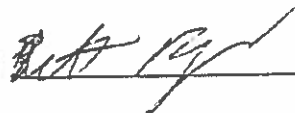

The employer agrees to expeditiously notify the OHO or State agency by telephone immediately upon learning that a crop is maturing earlier or later, or that weather conditions, over recruitment, or other factors have changed the terms and conditions of employment.

The employer, if acting as a farm labor contractor, has a valid farm labor contractor registration certificate.

The employer assures the availability of no cost or public housing which meets applicable Federal and State standards and which is sufficient to house the specified number of workers requested through the clearance system.

The employer also assures that outreach workers shall have reasonable access to the workers in the conduct of outreach activities pursuant to 20 CFR 653.107.

ITEM 3 - HOUSING:

Reasonable repair cost of damage, other than that caused by normal wear and tear, will be deducted from the earnings of workers found to have been responsible for damage to housing or furnishings. Housing and utilities are provided at no cost to workers who are unable to return to their place of residence the same day. If both male and female workers are hired, separate toilet, shower facilities, and sleeping rooms, will be provided by the employer.

Employer requests conditional access into the Interstate and Intrastate Clearance System and assures that the worker housing will meet the applicable Federal, State, & local Housing Standards no later than 30 days in advance of the date of need reflected on the attached ETA Form 790.

ITEM 10 – NUMBER OF WORKERS REQUESTED:

The employer expects the total number of workers to be used in this occupation to be 6, of which 6 will be H-2A workers for which certification is requested, and the balance will be domestic workers. These numbers are estimates as total workforce needs are dependent upon weather, crop conditions, and worker availability.

ITEM 11 - ANTICIPATED HOURS OF WORK:

8 hours per day, 6 days per week, is normal. The worker may be requested but not required to work additional hours and/or on the Sabbath or Federal holidays, depending upon the conditions in the fields or orchards, weather and maturity of the crop.

ITEM 15 - REFERRAL INSTRUCTIONS:

FIFTY PERCENT RULE: 20 CFR 655.135(d), From the time the foreign workers depart for the employer's place of employment, the employer will provide employment to any qualified, eligible US worker who applies to the employer until 50 percent of the period of the work contract has elapsed. Start of the work contract timeline is calculated from the first date of need stated on the Application for Temporary Employment Certification, under which the foreign worker who is in the job was hired."

ITEM 16 – JOB DESCRIPTION

X Willful destruction of property;

N/A Other _____

No deductions will be made which would bring the employee's hourly wage below the Federal Minimum Wage.

ITEM 18 – MORE DETAILS ABOUT THE PAY:

In the event the USDOL decreases the stated AEWR for any reason during the pendency of the employer's positive recruitment and term of labor certification in the instant application, the employer will correspondingly reduce his offered/paid hourly wage rate so long as the newer lower AEWR remains the highest of the aforementioned rates in effect at the time the work is performed. In the event the state workforce agency promulgates an hourly wage rate higher than the federal AEWR which is subsequently superseded by a prevailing wage rate identified by an industry- or employer-provided countervailing survey, accepted and approved by the USDOL, the employer reserves the right to pay the lower rate at his discretion but in any case not less than the highest of the aforementioned rates in effect at the time the work is performed.

The employer will N/A, will not X pay the worker a bonus of $N/A, based on Quality Picking N/A End of Season N/A Other N/A. Anticipated date by which payments will be made: N/A.

(d) The employer guarantees to offer employment for a minimum of $\frac{3}{4}$ of the workdays of the total specified period during which the work contract and all extensions thereof are in effect, beginning with the first day after worker arrives at the place of employment and ending on the expiration date specified in the work contract or extensions thereof. In Act of God termination, the $\frac{3}{4}$ guarantee period ends on the date of termination. BF

(e) Payroll Periods will be ~~8~~ Weekly; ^{BF} ☒ Bi-weekly. Workers will be paid on ~~FRIDAY~~ ^{TUESDAY} each payroll period. The employer will furnish to the worker on or before each payday in one or more written statements the following information and will comply with 20CFR 655.122(j)(k)(l)(m):

1. The worker's total earnings for the pay period
2. The worker's hourly rate and /or piece rate of pay
3. The hours of employment offered to the worker (showing offers in accordance with the three-fourths guarantee as determined in paragraph (i) of this section, separate from any hours offered over and above the guarantee)
4. The hours actually worked by the worker
5. An itemization of all deductions made from the worker's wages
6. If piece rates are used, the units produced daily
7. Beginning and ending dates of the pay period
8. The employer's name, address, and FEIN

Assurance provided that the highest wage will be paid at the time work is performed, for every hour or portion thereof worked, including any adjustments during a work contract period upon notification from the U.S. Department of Labor.

All earning records and statements will be available for inspection or transcription by the Secretary or a duly authorized and designated representative, and by the worker and representatives designated by the worker. 655.122(j)(k)(l)(m).

(f) Employer will provide a worker referred through the interstate clearance system 48 hours of work for the week beginning with the anticipated date of need, unless employer has amended the date of need by notifying the order holding office no later than 10 days before the date of need. If employer fails to notify the order-holding office, then employer shall pay an eligible worker referred through the clearance system $540.96, for the first week starting with the originally anticipated date of need. Employer will ; will not X require worker to perform alternative work if the guarantee cited in this section is invoked. Alternate work may be provided if the guarantee cited in this section is invoked. The alternate work and pay will be: N/A.

ITEM 19 - TRANSPORTATION ARRANGEMENTS:

The employer will provide advance transportation for reasonable (most economical) common carrier or other transportation which conforms to the Interstate Commerce Commission (ICC) inbound transportation if it is the prevailing practice. If not the prevailing practice, the employer will reimburse the worker for transportation costs and subsistence to the employer's work site when the worker completes 50% of the work period. The employer must pay the worker for reasonable costs incurred by the worker for transportation and daily subsistence from the place from which the worker has come to work for the employer, whether in the US or abroad, to the place of employment.

The employer will also provide advance subsistence at a minimum amount of $N/A per 24-hour period of travel from the place from which the worker has come to work for the employer to the place of employment (if it is the prevailing practice).

Workers who provide receipts for meals and non-alcoholic beverages in excess of $ N/A will be reimbursed during the first pay period. If no receipts are presented worker will be reimbursed up to the maximum amount of $N/A per 24-hour period of travel from place of recruitment to the place of employment (if it is the prevailing practice).

Workers who voluntarily quit or are terminated for cause prior to completing 50% of the contract period will be required to reimburse the employer for the full amounts of transportation and subsistence which were advanced and/or reimbursed to the worker.

After worker has completed 50% of the work contract period, employer will reimburse worker for the cost of transportation and subsistence from the place from which the worker has come to work for the employer to the place of employment.

Upon completion of the work contract, employer will pay reasonable costs of return transportation and subsistence (travel reimbursement subsistence will be the minimum amount of $12.07 when workers do not have receipts per 24-hour period of travel, and the maximum amount will be $51.00 per day when workers do have receipts) from the place of employment to the place from which the worker has come to work for the employer, except when the worker will not be returning to the place from which the worker has come to work for the employer due to subsequent employment with another employer who agrees to pay such costs, in which case the new employer will only pay for the transportation and subsistence to the next job. The amount of the transportation payment will be equal to the most economical and reasonable similar common carrier transportation charges for the distance involved.

Free transportation will be provided from the housing location to the work site and return each day.

OTHER CLARIFICATIONS AND ASSURANCES:

TERMINATIONS: The employer may terminate the worker with notification to the Employment Service if the worker: (a) refuses without justified cause to perform work for which the worker was recruited and hired; (b) commits serious acts of misconduct; or (c) fails, after completing any training or break-in period, to reach productions standards when production standards are applicable.

(initial)

CONTRACT IMPOSSIBILITY: If, before the expiration date specified in the work contract, the services of the worker are no longer required for reasons beyond the control of the employer due to fire, weather, or other Act of God that makes the fulfillment of the contract impossible, the employer may terminate the work contract. Whether such an event constitutes a contract impossibility will be determined by the CO. In the event of such termination of a contract, the employer must fulfill a three-fourths guarantee for the time that has elapsed from the start of the work contract to the time of its termination, as described in paragraph (i)(1) of this section. The employer must make efforts to transfer the worker to other comparable employment acceptable to the worker, consistent with existing immigration law, as applicable. If such transfer is not affected, the employer must:

1. Return the worker, at the employer's expense, to the place from which the worker (disregarding intervening employment) came to work for the employer, or transport the worker to the worker's next certified H2A employer, whichever the worker prefers.
2. Reimburse the worker the full amount of any deductions made from the worker's pay by the employer for transportation and subsistence expenses to the place of employment.
3. Pay the worker for any costs incurred by the worker for transportation and daily subsistence to that employer's place of employment. Daily subsistence must be computed as set forth in paragraph (h) of this section. The amount of the transportation payment must not be less (and is not required to be more) than the most economical and reasonable common carrier transportation charges for the distances involved.

In the event of termination for medical reasons occurring after arrival on the job, or occurring as a result of employment, or in the event of termination resulting from an Act of God, the employer will pay or provide reasonable costs of return transportation and subsistence to the place from which the worker has come to work for the employer. Additionally, the employer will reimburse worker for reasonable costs of transportation and subsistence incurred by the worker to get to the place of employment.

ABANDONMENT OF EMPLOYMENT OR TERMINATION FOR CAUSE:

If the worker voluntarily abandons employment before the end of the contract period, or is terminated for cause, and the employer notifies the NPC, and DHS in the case of an H-2A worker, in writing or by any other method specified by the Department or DHS in a manner specified in a notice published in the Federal Register not later than 2 working days after such abandonment occurs, the employer will not be responsible for providing or paying for the subsequent transportation and subsistence expenses of that worker under this section, and that worker is not entitled to the three-fourths guarantee described in paragraph (i) of this section. Abandonment will be deemed to begin after a worker fails to report for work at the regularly scheduled time for 5 consecutive working days without the consent of the employer.

INJURIES: The employer will provide Workers Compensation Insurance or equivalent employer provided insurance, at no cost to the worker, covering injury and disease arising out of, and in the course of, the worker's employment. Employer's proof of insurance coverage will be provided to the ETA field office before certification is granted. Workers Comp will be renewed if coverage expires during work period.

EMPLOYER OBLIGATION IF EMPLOYMENT EXTENDED: No extension of employment beyond the period of employment specified in the job order shall relieve the employer from paying the wages already earned, or, if specified in the job order as a term of employment, providing return transportation or paying return transportation expenses to the worker.

TERMS AND CONDITION CHANGES: The employer will expeditiously notify the order-holding office or State agency by telephone immediately upon learning that a crop is maturing earlier or later, or that weather conditions, over-recruitment, or other factors have changed the terms and conditions of employment.

OUTREACH WORKERS: Outreach workers shall have reasonable access to the worker in the conduct of outreach activities pursuant to 20 CFR 653.107 and 20 CFR 653.501.

PROOF OF CITIZENSHIP: All workers hired under this order will be required to provide documentation attesting to U. S. citizenship or legal status to work in the U. S.

AGRICULTURAL WORK AGREEMENT: A copy of the agricultural work agreement contract or the ETA 790 and attachments will be provided to the worker by the employer no later than on the day the work commences.

OTHER: The employer agrees to abide by the regulations at 20 CFR 655.135, Assurances, and 20 CFR 653.501. The working conditions will comply with applicable Federal and State minimum wage, child labor, social security, health and safety, farm labor contractor registration and other employment-related laws. The employer is an Equal Employment Opportunity employer and will offer U.S. workers no less than the same benefits, wages and working conditions that the employer is offering, intends to offer, or will provide to H2A workers.
